STIPULATED REQUEST TO EXTEND

[PROPOSED] ORDER

Pursuant to United States District Court, Northern District ADR Local Rule 5-5, Plaintiff WebFX, Inc. and Defendant Webhead Internet Development, Inc. sued herein as WEBFX.COM (hereinafter collectively, "Parties"), jointly submit the following stipulated request for an extension of time to complete Alternative Dispute Resolution ("ADR").

The Parties filed a Stipulation and Proposed Order Selecting ADR Process, selecting Early Neutral Evaluation on November 7, 2006. The Order Selecting ADR Process, referring the case to Early Neutral Evaluation, was filed on November 8, 2006, setting the deadline for completing the Early Neutral Evaluation session on February 6, 2007.

However, the ADR department was delayed in receiving a copy of the Stipulation and Order Selecting ADR Process, and, after receipt, the ADR department encountered difficulty in finding an available neutral evaluator to appoint to the case. As a result, the Notice of Appointment of Evaluator was not filed until February 1, 2007, just six days before the deadline to complete ADR.

Due to the time constraints, the Parties stipulate to, and hereby request, an extension of time of sixty (60) days, to April 9, 2007, for the Parties to complete their ADR session.

DATED: February 5, 2007.
